Thursday, February 8, 2018.

Attendees: Kent Krause, Doug Waglarz, Lisa Sanstrom, Joe Sanstrom, Sue Rocha, Penny Becker, Julie Westberg, Jodi Hanlon, Beata Smoter, Lee Everett, and Darren Lange

Meeting was called to order at 7:03 pm

Joe motioned to accept January minutes and Jodi seconded.

Doug had nothing to report at this time.

Lisa had nothing to report either at this time.

Jodi reported that there has not been any online swing dance tickets yet. No funds have come in since the statements were sent. A check came in from That's My Pan from our last order.

Kent said the step up concert was successful and there are 46 incoming freshman attended. 108 planning to sign up for auditions.

Jazz Café was also successful and the venue may change next year to somewhere else maybe cafeteria.

Swing dance is coming along. Kent is waiting to hear back from the schoolboard regarding have a student be the band director for the day. Also to have the dance move along it was discussed to have the combos to play by the silent auction that will be located by the steps using the trees from the Revolution show as a backdrop.

Falcon Fest is in the starting phase. Julie, Sue, and Eleonore are co-chairing this year. Julie stated what she needed to make it successful this year.

There was no old business.

There was a suggestion to move the FPBO meeting to the 2nd Thursday of the month to maybe avoid schedule issues with the concerts.

Joe motioned to adjourn the meeting and Jodi seconded. Motion passed at 7:57 pm
